

Grade 10 | Information & Communication Technology | Essay Answer

1. This is because the statement did not mention the presence of a nurse or an assistant in the medical service. Telemedicine is the practice of supervising a patient from one place to another by consulting a physician.
2. Input - Password / amount requested / card information
Process - Update the account balance / check the amount and balance / check the validity of the password
Output - Account Balance / Cash / Bill
3.
 - A. No need to travel to the head office saves time / money.
 - B. High cost / Internet connection required
 - C. Email / instant messaging
 - D. Social networks / online chats / chat forums
4. Input - Bar codes / size of each item
Process - Identification / conversion / cost calculation of bar codes / calculation of total cost / value of all items
Reward - Bill
5. Average / Minimum Rainfall / Maximum Rainfall / Total Rainfall
6. Notes / Online Quizzes / Results / Advertising
7. Computers, webcams and communication software, and the Internet
8. Item code / size
Find the value of the bill
The value of the bill
9. Learning from anywhere / Uploading assignments from home / Sharing files
10. Input - Account Number / Amount / Money Identification Number (PIN) / Final Approval
Rewards - Personal Identification Number Request Message / Showing All Money Transfer Form / e- Receipt Process - PIN confirmation / display of details / generation of receipt